This Week’s

Graduation Reviewing Officer

Navy Capt. Michael R. Eslinger

Reviewing today’s graduation is Navy Capt. Michael R. Eslinger, the Director of Operational Medicine and the officer in charge of the Branch Medical Clinic.

Eslinger, a native of Newport, Tenn., originally enlisted in the Marine Corps in September 1966 and attended recruit training aboard the Depot. He was meritoriously promoted to private first class and was assigned as an aviation electrician.

He was medically discharged from the U.S. Marine Corps in March 1967. Eslinger then earned his diplomas in nursing anesthesia through the U.S. Army. After 18 years of combined active and reserve duty in the Army, he entered the Navy and subsequently received a regular commission in the Nurse Corps.

Eslinger’s assignments and duty stations include: Naval Hospital Long Beach, Calif.; USS Forestall (CV-59); Naval Hospital, Jacksonville, Fla.; the U.S. Hospital Ship Mercy; and the Naval Medical Center Portsmouth, Va. Eslinger was also stationed aboard the USS Tripoli; the USS Okinawa; and the USS Saratoga.

He also deployed on the USS New Jersey as one of the first anesthesiologists with the battleship battle group. Eslinger also participated in Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm with both the 1st and 2nd Fleet Service Support Groups.

He is a 1994 graduate of the Naval War College where he earned his Master’s Degree in National Security and Strategic Studies.

Eslinger’s personal awards include the Meritorious Service Medal with a Gold Star, the Navy Commendation with two Gold Stars, and the Combat Action Ribbon.
